- Not Sustained - where it is determined that there is insufficient evidence to prove the allegations;
- Unfounded - where it is determined by that an allegation is false or not factual; or
- Exonerated - where it is determined that the conduct described in the allegation occurred, but it is lawful and proper.

INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

R/I received an Initiation Report and contacted the R/P for clarification of the incident. The R/P alleges that during a traffic stop, Officer Evans, who was accompanied by Officer Maloy, informed her that she was parked in a no parking zone. Officer Evans informed the R/P that he would issue her a warning and allow her to leave. When the R/P requested Officer Evans' badge number, he mumbled it swiftly. When the R/P requested the presence of a supervisor, Officer Evans directed the R/P to exit her vehicle. The R/P explained to Officer Evans that she did not feel comfortable getting out of the vehicle and requested a supervisor. Officer Evans placed his hand on the vehicle door and aggressively demanded that the R/P exit the vehicle. Following the direction, the R/P exited and stood outside of the vehicle with Officer Evans, who pointed at a No Parking sign and made comments the R/P cannot recall. Officer Evans then went to his vehicle and when he returned, he threw a parking citation at the R/P. When the R/P asked if a supervisor was coming, Officer Evans told her that he (the supervisor) would get there when he gets there. Officer Evans and Officer Maloy then left the scene. The R/P remained at the scene waiting for a supervisor but then decided to drive to the 8th District police station to file a complaint. While at the 8th District, Officer Evans walked in, tipped his hat, and nodded at the R/P in an intimidating manner.
