INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

My car, along with my sister car was parked on South Kostner and another vehicle hit our cars and left the scene. The incident occurred around 315 am on April 6, 2019. We were sleep and when we woke up the next morning, our vehicles were gone. Based on the police report that was accessed online, the police on the scene ran the plates and located the address of my sister's vehicle. The police never knocked on doors or attempted to notify us of what occurred and had our cars towed to the city pound failure to investigate and inattentive to duty. There was no notification or indication of the location of the cars given or left by the officer handling the case.
