INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

The police were called out to my daughters school by another parent and her child. When the police arrived the mom informed them that she has a order of protection against my daughter. Which we were unaware of. The police looked up the info that the parent provided and let her know that my daughter was never served nor went to court on this order. My daughter is 15 years old, and the school called me as soon as the police arrived. The principal stated that when he arrived back to the room were my daughter was the police had my daughter surrounded and she had the paper in her hand. They had served her without an adult present. I went to district 22 to get the officers badge info and to ask how did this happen. The white shirt on duty said the other white shirt that went to the school that day said the principal was present when they served her. The principal said that they had their body cams on and that is false, he was not present. The officers at the station stated that they would have never did that if they knew who daughter it was.
