Administrative Summary Report

Log No: 2019-0002102

Rule Violation:

11 - INCOMPETENCY OR INEFFICIENCY IN THE PERFORMANCE OF DUTY - In regard to the RP's allegation that on 10 June 2019 at 30 [REDACTED] W. Lexington Chicago IL 60612, Officer Donovan improperly issued him a parking citation for parking in a vacant lot, R/Sgt finds that allegation is sustained, because Officer Donovan did not complete the Public/ Private Parking Complaint Form as mandated in 9-20-120(c) Parking in parking lots as well as in Special Order S04-14-17 Public/ Private Parking Complaints. Officer Donovan mistakenly applied section (b) of the Ordinance rather than section (c). Section (b) does not apply to this situation because Sanders, the owner of the vacant lot never intended to use the lot as an off-street parking facility for her tenants or employees. Section (c) applies and gives Officers the authority to write citations to vehicles in vacant lots upon a written complaint signed by the owner of the lot. S04-14-07 Public/Private Parking Complaints reiterates the same mandate: Officers can only issue citations to vehicles in vacant lots if the citation is accompanied by the Public/ Private Parking Complaint Form which must be signed by the owner of the vacant lot (Attachments 22, 23 and 24). Officer Donovan did not complete the Public/Private Parking Complaint Form before issuing the citation. R/Sgt's sustained finding is bolstered by the fact that the City of Chicago dismissed this citation. In Officer Donovan's Accused Report, Officer Donovan related that he simply didn't know that the Public/Private Parking Complaint Form must accompany the citation, violating rule 11 – incompetency in the performance of duty.
