- Sustained - where it is determined that the allegation is supported by the evidence;
- Not Sustained - where it is determined that there is insufficient evidence to prove the allegations;
- Unfounded - where it is determined by that an allegation is false or not factual; or
- Exonerated - where it is determined that the conduct described in the allegation occurred, but it is lawful and proper.

INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

Officer Sykes 13871 started yelling/screaming to my husband to lower the rear window which my husband didn't understand because he doesn't speak English but I told the officer that I did and he was scaring me by the way he was yelling at us. He told my husband which again he 100 doesn't understand English to let me know that he wasn't speaking to me in a very rude way. Once my husband lowered the window, he yelled again for him to put the window up because he noticed that my dog was there. Again, my husband didn't understand but Officer didn't let me speak to translate. As an American citizen, I know my rights and just because we are Latino, he doesn't need to be yelling or think he is able to talk to us in an aggressive way. Because of officers like him, a lot of things have happened. We all need to be treated in an educated way.

I don't feel secure with officers like him. I am doing this to stop the violence. We need to change for our new generation.
