- Not Sustained - where it is determined that there is insufficient evidence to prove the allegations;
- Unfounded - where it is determined by that an allegation is false or not factual; or
- Exonerated - where it is determined that the conduct described in the allegation occurred, but it is lawful and proper.

INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

The complainant stated that she was battered by offender, [REDACTED] and during the battery the offender injured her 16 month old daughter with a sharp object which the complainant could not identify as it happened too rapidly. The complainant alleged that the accused officer incorrectly and inaccurately completed the case report in that the accused officer classified the offense as a simple battery when it was an aggravated battery because her daughter suffered head trauma and bleeding from above her eye from the battery. The complainant alleged that the accused did not document what occurred accurately.
