The information contained herein is intended to display Department member's accountability and foster the relationship with members of the public by ensuring legitimacy and community confidence. The following are definitions of recommended findings:

- Sustained - where it is determined that the allegation is supported by the evidence;
- Not Sustained - where it is determined that there is insufficient evidence to prove the allegations;
- Unfounded - where it is determined by that an allegation is false or not factual; or
- Exonerated - where it is determined that the conduct described in the allegation occurred, but it is lawful and proper.

INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

The complainant stated that she is a volunteer patient escort at Family Planning Associates. On the date of the incident, protesters were gathered outside harassing patients and coming within close proximity to them. The complainant stated that the law protects these patients and states that the protesters must remain eight feet or farther away from the patients, but they were much closer so she called the police for service. The complainant alleged that the accused officer only sided with the protesters and did not care what the city ordinance was with regards to the matter at hand. The complainant alleged that the accused allowed the protesters to continue what they were doing and left.
