INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

Event # 1932 314585

On Tuesday 11/19/19 at approx. 10 pm, I called for service to remove an unwanted subject from 5█ W Roosevelt. Both the responding officer and supervisor refused to arrest the person. Sgt Riordian was the supervision and she stated that 'they will not be arresting this individual because he is in a wheel chair and it will take too long for the appropriate vehicle to respond'.

We have called the police many times to have this person removed in addition to telling them not to come back to the property. No trespassing signs are posted and we signed the trespass affidavit enrollment form allowing

Based on Sgt Riordian's comments it seems like she did not want to enforce the laws because it was not convenient for her. I would like action taken where the Police will respond and make arrests when the conditions warrant regardless of how long it takes for the transport vehicle to respond.
