INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

I am 6 months pregnant and there was an attempted Sexual Assault on the Jackson Stop/ Blue Line. The assailant [REDACTED] attacked me ,punch and hit me. Pulled me on the ground and i had to defend myself. which was very difficult. I am in pain and injured, My unborn baby could have been murdered. However all of the officers who arrived on the scene,told me that if I Wanted to press charges.I would be arrested too , because I Had an illegal weapon. The officers were not sympathetic to me being pregnant,nor that I was beaten or hurt. They also refused to call me an ambulance. I had to ride in the back of a police car . then was let out on the street .The predator that attacked me was not arrested by Chicago police department, he wasn't given a court date , nothing was done by The CTA police either. I was given information that I could request an order of protection.but that it be difficult without an official police report,which the officer refused to do .
