INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

Complainant stated that he was driving a tow truck, and he was on his way to a shop. Complainant stated that he went through an alley to get around because there was a squad car in the middle of the street, so he was not able to get through. Complainant stated that when he was approaching a stop sign, the accused Officer activated his emergency lights. Complainant alleges that the accused Officer stated to him that he was chasing an accident, which was a few blocks over. Complainant stated the accused Officer gave him three tickets. Complainant stated that he didn't want to sign the first ticket, soliciting the accident, because he was not by the accident scene. Complainant stated that he felt harassed and shouldn't have received these tickets. License Plate# [REDACTED]
