INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

I called 312-745-4290 and the phone was answered by a female who would only identify herself as Turner. She stated that she was a desk clerk. The call was made on 16 January 2020 at about 12:12pm. I called and was advised that I had contacted District 1. I then asked for the number to the Area North Detectives Bureau and Turner stated well how did you get this number. I then responded I conducted a Google search for Area North Detectives and received the number I called. I then asked Turner why she was being so rude to which she stated, You can ask questions, why can't I? I then advised her that I simply needed the number to Area North Detectives and she placed me on hold. After about 5 minutes on hold another clerk got on the line and provided the correct number to Area North Detectives.. If possible, please review the call to hear the level of disrespect received by a member of the CPD.
