INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

I went to file a report against my abusive husband how has been harassing. I finally gathered the courage to go and file it and all the officer did was keep asking why I didn't call 911 at the time and didn't I think it was an emergency. let me tell you the last two times I tried to call the police he strangled me both times. So that is why I didn't call the cops. Also two days prior to my going to the police station he almost hit me with the car and took my phone. So tell me, Mr. Officer, how am I supposed to cal 911 with no phone and I'm too scared to go out again because of this. For the past 4 days, I have been harassed by him. he keeps calling my work nonstop and showing up around here along with sending threatening text messages but it seems the police don't care about the safety of the people they swore to serve and protect. But boy do they love the paychecks. Was it in a School?: No
