INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

I have several clear photos and videos that have police officers clearly not showing their badge numbers between 5/30/2020 and 6/5/2020. These officers still have their last name showing.

Mayor Lightfoot recently said during a press conference: "wearing nameplates in uniform is the most universal form of transparency and accountability when it comes to policing. All Chicago Police officers are required to wear and make visible their or, unit assignment designator, nameplate, and prescribed star. Should any officer be found in violation of these policies, we will ensure that they will be held fully accountable."
