INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

Civilian Complaint: It is alleged that accused officers did not properly inventory the subjects' belongings. Reporting party is the fiance of the subject. She noted that CPD inventoried her fiance's items. When they tried to collect the items from CPD all items were missing.

-Web Submission below-

My fiance was in Cook jail from January 29, 2020 until April 25, 2020. When we came to pick up his personal property they didn't have it anymore. He had not only my brand new phone but his cards and ID as well. How was he supposed to get his belongings while being locked up? I'm utterly disgusted and think you should pay for my phone and replace the cards especially since we are in the midst of a pandemic and nothing has been open since March. I tried to pick up once and was told no one was there that could help me. Not to mention perfectly good clothes and a winter coat
