INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

(George Floyd protests) During a protest against police brutality on Thursday, June 11th, 2020, we gathered in front of the District 17 precinct. There were about 20 officers gathered out front. They did not engage with us in any way. However, three of them were covering their badge numbers through a variety of methods. One was covered with a "thin blue line" band, another with pens and pencils in his pocket, and another had the badge positioned on his vest so that the number was concealed in his pocket. None of these officers adjusted their badge coverings when requested to do so by myself and others in the crowd. None of the other officers, including the higher ranking officers, as identified by their white shirts and caps, took any action to correct them.
